GENERAL GRANT.

The Great Hero will Arrive in Janesville by Special Train.

Public Reception at the Myers House.

General Grant, Colonel Fred Grant, and General Howley will arrive in Janesville by special train, at 7 o'clock this evening, and will hold a public reception at the Myers house, immediately after their arrival.

It is expected that the military companies, the bands, and the fire department will join in a parade in honor of the distinguished visitors.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST BATTALION.

Special Order, No. 4.—Companies A and B, of this Battalion will parade this (Wednesday) evening in full uniform. They will form in line on South Main street opposite the Bower City Band quarters, at 6:30 o'clock sharp. By order W. B. BRITTON, Lieutenant Colonel Commanding. M. A. NEWMAN, Adjutant.

BRIEF FACTS.

—Look out for Jack F.

—The Milwaukee street bridge will soon be in good shape again.

—The big glass for Bennett's new building still lingereth afar off.

—Mrs. Sadler has gone to Chicago to purchase goods for the fall trade.

—The sidewalk strollers began using their pockets for mittens this morning.

—Persons visiting the Fair will find the Slightman house the place to stop at.

—There is little change in Mrs. Harry Carter's condition to-day, she being still very dangerously ill.

—The case of Richard Rooney for keeping a slaughter house without a permit, was called before Justice Nolan this morning, and adjourned one week.

—The Afton train was loaded with State fair passengers this morning, who were as thick as flies on a drop of molasses. Proper had to crawl along on the bell rope to collect the fares and tickets. A regular rush.

—The special train for Madison over the Northwestern road, will leave here to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock, arriving in Madison at 9:15, and leaving Madison at 6:30 p. m., will reach Janesville at 8:15. Fare $1.00 for the round trip. There will be more cars to-morrow.

—Another hand organist appeared on the streets to-day apparently a twin brother to the fellow who was here last week. The professional pun-maker called our attention to him, and urged us to give him a "send off." As editors generally wear corns they are not in good condition for such work. Won't some other fellow with a big boot do just as well?

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 62 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. at 49 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 48 degrees above and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 62 degrees above.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, rising, followed by stationary or falling barometer, cooler north to east winds, and partly cloudy weather.

PERSONAL.

—Dr. J. Adams Allen, of Rush College, Chicago, was in the city last night, called him to consult concerning Mrs. E. L. Dimock's condition. She passed rather a more comfortable night, than of late, and the prospects of recovery are a little more encouraging, though she is by no means beyond danger.

—Miss Anna Kunkle, who for some months has been teaching elocution in this city, has accepted the position of Instructor of Elocution, in Lawrence University, to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Holdrege's resignation. Miss Kunkle is a graduate of the Philadelphia School of Oratory, and is not only an elocutionist in name but in fact. There are so many so-called readers before the public, that it is rather refreshing to greet one who really merits praise, and while we regret that Miss Kunkle is to leave Janesville, yet we are glad that the students of the University are to have the benefit of such an excellent instructor, and that Appleton society is to gain one so well worthy of friendship. Miss Kunkle will not commence her new duties until the last of the month, and while her pupils and friends here will feel like protesting against her leaving, yet their best wishes will go with her into this wider and more promising field of labor and usefulness.

UNIFORMED PATRIARCHS.

The meeting of the Milwaukee Battalion Uniformed Patriarchs, I. O. O. F., to be held in Milwaukee October 7, and which the Rock River Encampment, as well as others in the State, expect to attend by invitation, promises to be an event of more than ordinary interest. The programme of the doings has just been arranged, and for the benefit of those interested we give its outline: The Patriarchs are to meet at their hall, corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets, at 10:30 a. m., prepared to perform escort duty, the commander assigning signals for each depot. There will be dinner at the Newhall house at 1:15 o'clock, and at 2 o'clock the parade will form on Broadway, the night resting on Wisconsin street. Immediately after the parade the business meeting will be called to order, and officers elected, after which the object of forming a State Association of uniformed Patriarchs will be discussed. At the conclusion of this business meeting there will be supper served at the Newhall house. The Patriarch's who are to take the degree of the Patriarchal Circle will present themselves at the hall at 7:30 o'clock p. m., and the day's entertainment is to conclude with a banquet at Bon Accord.

hall, to commence at 8:30 o'clock. All the expenses of the day's entertainment are to be defrayed by the Milwaukee Battalion.

TRIBUTE FROM TEACHERS.

The two weeks' institute, commencing August 23, at Milton, and conducted by Mr. J. Q. Emery, assisted by J. E. Silsbee, was eminently a success. Although the heavy and almost incessant rain storms that set in, and the bad roads occasioned by them, prevented many teachers from attending, yet with the return of more favorable weather, the number increased until it reached 65. The teachers were deeply interested from the first, and this attention and decorum were in a high degree commendable. The conductors presented many theories supported by clear and masterly illustrations, which secured the approval of all, and will doubtless prove of great interest to the teachers, and eventually to the schools of the county. It should be mentioned that Superintendent Jones was a vigorous power in the week.

For appreciation on the part of the teachers, and citizens, and earnest and effective labor on the part of the leaders, we believe the institute was surpassed by no other ever held in the county. At the close, the teachers unanimously adopted the following resolutions: WHEREAS, We, the teachers of the Second District of Rock county, have enjoyed the advantages of an institute held in the town of Milton for two weeks past, and now desire to express our honest convictions with respect thereto, therefore be it Resolved, That our sincere thanks be, and hereby are, extended to the conductor, Mr. J. Q. Emery, for the exceedingly efficient manner in which he has conducted the work, for the energy and zeal he has evinced in our behalf, and for the gentlemanly bearing he has displayed throughout.

Resolved, That our thanks be, and are hereby extended, to assistant conductor, J. E. Silsbee, for his able instruction in Penmanship and History; and also to Superintendent W. E. Jones, for his many acts in aid of the work, and his kind suggestions for our welfare.

Resolved, That to State Superintendent W. C. Whitford, our thanks be recorded for his instructive lecture before us Wednesday evening.

Resolved, That our gratitude be, and is hereby expressed, to the teachers of Milton College, for their generosity in placing the College Chapel, adjoining rooms and other necessary means at our disposal.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be submitted for publication.

—Samuel Grove has recently left for Boston. He goes there to attend the Methodist Theological Seminary to qualify himself for the ministry.

—Miss M. A. Cuckow goes to Beaver Dam to teach in the Baptist Institution there.

—The public school here opened on Monday, Miss Delia Schenck is the teacher.

—The Congregational church is now being calcimined. A couple of men from Janesville are doing the job.

—One of our oldest citizens, L. M. Goodrich, was prostrated by an apoplectic stroke on Monday afternoon, while working at the shop of his son, W. F. Goodrich, and was carried in an unconscious condition to his home. His life was despaired of for some time, he being a very old man, but happily he rallied, and is now rapidly recovering.

—Emerald Grove is fast becoming the leading market in this section of the country for butter and eggs. Farmers are bringing in their produce from quite a distance and get the highest prices.

are to be served, and a good time is expected.

—Miss Jessie Jones returns, this week, to her home in New Jersey.

—Mr. L. M. Goodrich died this morning (Wednesday) very suddenly, with apoplexy. The funeral services will be held at the M. E. church, Friday, at two o'clock. Mr. Goodrich was born in Middlebury, Vermont, in 1804, and has lived in Rock county twenty-eight years.
